SIR,

Re. Reduction of the Minimum of Charitable Deposits for Acceptance, to Rs 250.

Adverting to G.O.No.Fl.2689-93/G.F.124-16-1 dated 30-11-1916 sanctioning the reduction of the minimum fixed for charitable deposit from Rs 3,000 to Rs 1,000, temporarily, for a period of three years, in the first instance, and subsequent letter No.2082/Muz.291-22-1 dated 15-1-1923 from the Revenue Secretary to Government, to the Muzrai Commissioner, intimating that deposits between Rs 1,000 and Rs 3,000 may be accepted until further orders (vide pp.220 - Muzrai Manual), I have the honor to state that the minimum of Rs 1,000 fixed has been working as a hardship in the cases of several donors desirou of offering charitable endowments of less than Rs 1,000 for the permanent benefit of religious and charitable objects. Instances of this kind have come to my notice; and Government also have, in individual deserving cases, sanctioned the acceptance of charitable deposits of less than Rs 1,000 (vide G.O.No.680-1/Muz.99-38-2 dated 5-11-1938, sanctioning the acceptance of charitable deposits of Rs 7 in favour of the Hostel attached to the Sri Chamarajendra Veda Maha Pathasala, Bangalore, and G.O.No.226-8/Muz.56-40-2 dated 25-7-1940, sanctioning the acceptance of a charitable deposit of Rs 350 in favo of the Sri Malleswaraswami Temple at Malleswaram, Bangalore City).

Besides, there are a large number of cases, as noted in the margin, in which puduvat endowments of less than Rs 1,000 are now

	Number of cases.	Total amount. Rs.	invested in 6¼% loan bonds,
Endowments of less than Rs 1,000 ..	89	22,~~575~~ 9/12-8-0
Endowments of Rs 250 and above, up to Rs 1,000	34	16,350

which will mature by the end of the current month and which amounts will earn interest at 2¼% ~~interest~~ per annum only, if invested in S.B. Fixed Deposits from 1st October 1940. This will be detrimental to the charities created by benevolent and charitably disposed donors.

I invite kind reference, in this connection, to G.O.No.D.13925-26/ Edn.984-28-2 dated 29-6-1929, empowering the Director of public Instruction in Mysore, to accept all charitable endowments for educational purposes subject to a minimum of Rs 250, where no special rate of interest is claimed by donors.

With a view to extend the benefit of this order to the donors of religious and charitable deposits, and also, to induce a large number of persons to come forward with the offer of religious and charitable endowments I recommend that the present minimum of Rs 1,000 fixed for acceptance by the Muzrai Commissioner may be reduced to Rs 250, as in the case of educational deposits carrying interest at 4% ~~interest~~ per annum.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Muzrai Commissioner.

Orders re 896-40
28-10-40

The Nyasa Commissioner has reported that the minimum of Rs 1000 now fixed has been working as a hardship in the case of several donors desirous of offering endowments of smaller amounts for religious and charitable ~~objects~~ purposes and that further in a large number (crossed out) of cases in which productive endowments of less than Rs 1000 have invested in 6¼% loan bonds which matured on the end of September 1940, the amounts have to be kept in Savings Bank fixed deposits carrying interest at 2¾% and that this would substantially reduce the remuneration available for services. He has therefore recommended that the limit
